Section 1: Contracts: The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, may authorize any Officer or agent to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of SAGE Upstate, and such authority may be general or confined to a specific instance; and unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no Officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the organization by any contract or engagement, or to pledge its credit, or render it liable pecuniarily for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 2: Check, Drafts, etc.: All checks, drafts or orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such Officer or Officers, agent or agents of the corporation as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. In the absence of such determination by the Board of Directors, such instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by the Chair or Vice-Chair of SAGE Upstate.

Section 3: Deposits: All funds of the organization shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

Section 4: Gifts: The Board of Directors may accept on behalf of the corporation any contribution, gift, bequest or devise for the general purposes or for any special purpose of SAGE Upstate.

Article XVII: Prohibition Against Sharing in Corporate Earnings

Section 1: During Normal Operations: No Director, Officer, employee, member of any committee of SAGE Upstate, or any person connected with SAGE Upstate, or any other private individual, shall receive at any time any of the net earnings or pecuniary profit from the operations of the corporation, provided that this shall not prevent the payment to any such person of reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for SAGE Upstate in effecting any of its purposes as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2: In the Event of Dissolution: No Director, Officer, employee, member of any committee of SAGE Upstate, or any person connected with SAGE Upstate, or any other private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporation assets or distribution or division of its remaining property upon the dissolution or liquidation of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, except as may otherwise be provided by law. All Directors of the corporation shall be deemed to have expressly consented and agreed that upon such dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets of the corporation, after all debts have been satisfied, then remaining in the hands of the Board of Directors shall be distributed, transferred, conveyed, delivered, and paid over, in such amounts as the Board of Directors may determine or as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon application of the Board of Directors, exclusively to one or more charitable organizations exempt pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or to the Federal government, or to a State or local government, for a public purpose, or would be distributed to another organization to be used in such manner as in the judgment of the court will best accomplish the general purposes for which SAGE Upstate is organized.

Article XVIII: Exempt Activities

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these bylaws, no Director, Officer, employee or representative of SAGE Upstate shall take any action or carry on any activity by or on behalf of the corporation not permitted to be taken or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Article XIX: Investments

SAGE Upstate shall have the right to retain all or any part of any securities or property acquired by it in whatever manner, and to invest and reinvest any funds held by it, according to the judgment of the Board of Directors, without being restricted to the class of investments which a trustee is or may hereafter be permitted by law to make or any similar restriction, provided, however, that no action shall be taken by or on behalf of the corporation, if such action is a prohibited transaction or would result in the denial of the tax exemption under section 503 or 504 of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Article XX: Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of SAGE Upstate shall commence on January 1 of each year and end on December 31.

Article XXI: Books and Records

SAGE Upstate shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board of Directors, of committees having any of the authority of the Board of Directors, and of the Annual Membership Meeting and Special Meetings.

Article XXII: Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or the bylaws of SAGE Upstate, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Article XXIII: Amendment of By-Laws

Section 1: Amendment by the Board of Directors: The Board of Directors may amend these By-laws at any time by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the entire Board.

Section 2: Notification of Amendments to the Membership: Any changes in the by-laws enacted by the Board of Directors must be reported to the membership and posted on the website.

Section 3: Amendments by Members: Members of SAGE Upstate may submit suggestions for changes in the by-laws to the Executive Committee at any time for their consideration.

Article XXIV: Employees

Section 1: Executive Director:

- A. The Executive Director is hired by the Board of Directors. Approval of this appointment shall require a majority vote of the entire Board. The Executive Director has day-to-day responsibilities for the Corporation, including carrying out the Corporation's goals and Board policy. The Executive Director will attend all Board meetings and may attend all committee meetings. The Executive Director will report on progress of the Corporation, answer questions of the Board members, and carry out the duties as described in the job description. The Board can delegate other duties as well.
- B. The Executive Director is empowered to expend funds on behalf of Sage Upstate and its mission.
 - i. Funds for ordinary expenses (e.g., rent, salary, office expenditure, etc.) may be expended without additional Board approval once the Board has accepted the annual budget or approved budget modifications
 - ii. Funds budgeted under grant or from other contracted funds must be expended in a manner specified in the grant or contract unless modified in a manner acceptable to the grantor or agency providing the funds. Budget modifications must follow the guidelines specified in paragraph v below.
 - iii. Funds budgeted for program expenses must be expended in the general categories for which they were approved. No Board approval is needed for expenditures within a budgetary category, subject to the limitation in paragraph v below.
 - iv. Funds budgeted from Sage Upstate's unrestricted accounts are subject to the restrictions noted above, regardless of category, and must be approved in line with the guidelines outlined in paragraph v below.
 - v. The Executive Director may approve extraordinary expenditures or modifications to the approved budget up to $750.
 - vi. All extraordinary expenditures or modifications to the approved budget by the Executive Director must be reported to the Board no later than the next Board meeting.

Section 2: Other Employees: Other employees may be hired at the discretion of and according to the policies established by the Board of Directors of SAGE Upstate.

This version includes revisions suggested at an Aug. 2019 meeting along with proposed revisions to be presented at the March 2021 board meeting.
